CLEVELAND (AP) — The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers—the key operating union in the current work rules dispute—has served demands on the nation's railroads for a 25 per cent wage increase.

Also among demands served Sunday by the 78,000-member union were supplemental pensions and company-paid health coverage. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers previously asked the nation's railroads for pay increases.

In Washington, a spokesman for the American Association of Railroads said the organization would have no comment pending a study of the demands.

An arbitration board issued recommendations Tuesday that could involve the elimination of up to 33,000 firemen's jobs.

The five operating unions and the railroads were to settle wages and other issues between themselves under the Emergency Rail Arbitration Law passed by Congress in August to halt the threat of a strike then. The arbitration board was given only the firemen and train crew issues to settle.

Failure of negotiations could result in the dispute going back to Congress Feb. 25, the expiration date of the Rail Arbitration Law.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the B.L.F.E., said wage adjustments for locomotive engineers, locomotive helpers (firemen), hostlers and hostler helpers represented by the brotherhood were long overdue.

Gilbert said the last wage increase became effective March 1, 1961. He said the railroad industry is operating at near-peak prosperity despite official management statements to the contrary.

Included in the wage demands was a stipulation for a daily earnings minimum of $40 for engineers and $35 for firemen in all classes of road service. The current wage scale was not available.

Bondsman Wins Forfeiture Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Bondsman Ted Hood of Little Rock won the final round today in a $2,000 bond forfeiture case which dates back to 1958.

Hearing the case for the third time, the Arkansas Supreme Court held today that an August 4, 1962 proclamation by Gov. Orval E. Faubus cancelling the bond forfeiture in St. Francis Circuit Court was valid.

Attorney for the state had argued that Faubus had no right to cancel the bond since the forfeiture was a civil and not a criminal proceeding and that the governor's powers of clemency do not cover civil cases.

The Supreme Court ruled, however, that the forfeiture grew out of a criminal case and was thus subject to action by the governor.

Prime Minister of Turkey Quits

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Prime Minister Ismet Inonu, 80, resigned today.

He had returned only Saturday from Washington, where he attended the funeral of President Kennedy.

In his absence, two members of his governing coalition — the new Turkey party and the Peasants Nation party — decided to pull out. This left Inonu in the position either of forming a new government or calling parliamentary elections.

Reports that Inonu was to be assassinated circulated in Turkey Saturday and a heavy security guard was thrown around him as he arrived from the United States.

Deaths by Violence Number 7

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
James D. Davis, 33, of the Jones Mill Community in Hot Spring County was killed Sunday when he apparently lost control of his car on state Highway 51, five miles north of Malvern.

His car collided head-on with a pickup truck driven by Elmer Thornton, 44, of Malvern.

Willis C. Duncan, 23, of Hot Springs, was killed 550 yards east of the Hot Springs city limits when a car driven by James Harvey, 40, of Malvern, went out of control and collided head-on with Duncan's car.

Their deaths boosted to seven the number of persons who died of violent deaths in Arkansas during the week ended Sunday at midnight.

The state violent death toll was extremely light considering the long Thanksgiving holiday period which began at 6 p.m. Wednesday. Five persons died in traffic accidents during the week, all during the holiday period.

The other deaths were in shootings at Marked Tree and DeQueen.

More Are Born, More Live Longer, Americans Getting Both Older and Younger

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

As more of us are born and more of us live longer, Americans seem to be getting both older and younger. By 1970, it is estimated, half the population will be under 20 or over 65.

In the last 15 years the percentage of the average consumer dollar spent on food has dropped from 31.4 to 23.7, the percentage spent on clothing has fallen from 13.7 to 10.1, but we're spending more on such things as housing, foreign travel education and medical care.

Legislators Can't Serve on Boards

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court held today that members of the state legislature cannot legally serve on state boards and commissions.

The court said specifically that Rep. Louis Sadler of Morrilton cannot be chairman of the state Pardon and Parole Board and that Sen. E. L. Mosley of Camden cannot be a member of the Southern State College Board.

However, the ruling would apply to any legislator who may be a member of a board or commission or who might aspire to such an appointment. Mosley and Sadler were defendants in a taxpayers suit filed by Kenneth Starnes of Little Rock and others. The suit asked that they be required to return to the state any money they might have received while serving on the boards.

The Supreme Court said, however, that there was no evidence that either Sadler or Mosley had intended fraud in the dual office holdings and that they should not be required to return what ever expense money they have received.

The board posts do not pay any salary but members get expenses and a daily allowance when they attend meetings.

Sadler was chairman of the Parole Board when he was elected to the legislature in 1961.

Johnson Calls in Cabinet, Budget Men

By KARL R. BAUMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson called two Cabinet officers and his budget director to the White House today for conferences on economic and defense matters.

The sessions with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges and Budget Director Kermit Gordon followed hard on the heels of a busy Sunday at the White House for the new President.

While at his desk Sunday, Johnson drafted a letter to defense contractors asking their cooperation in cutting defense costs, and the White House announced the dates when West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard, Italian President Antonio Segni and British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home will visit the President.

Johnson begins his work today with an early morning visit from Whitney Young, executive director of the National Urban League. In late afternoon Johnson presents the $50,000 Enrico Fermi Award to controversial nuclear physicist J. Robert Oppenheimer.

Oppenheimer directed the Los Alamos Laboratory where the atom bomb was developed during World War II. In 1954, he was declared a security risk by the Atomic Energy Commission. The commission did not question his loyalty, but by a 4-1 vote barred him from further access to atom secrets.

Last April, the White House announced that in recognition of his contribution toward developing the bomb, the AEC had selected him to receive the Fermi Award, one of science's most coveted honors.

Mrs. Kennedy Back in Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy and her children, Caroline, 6, and John Jr., 3, have returned to the White House after a Thanksgiving weekend reunion with the Kennedy family at Hyannis Port, Mass.

A crowd of several hundred massed at Hyannis' Barnstable Airport to see them off but only White House staffers, newsmen and photographers were at chilly Andrews Air Force Base Sunday night when a two-engineled air force plane returned the Kennedys to the capital.

Mrs. Kennedy, dressed in black, was bareheaded. The children were dressed in blue coats. With them were Mrs. Kennedy's sister, Mrs. Lee Radziwill, and a niece, Sydney Lawford, daughter of the late President's sister, Mrs. Peter Lawford.

Law Subject at Meeting of 6th Grades

Last week the sixth grades of Garland School invited Albert Graves, Jr. to speak to them on "The Influence of Roman Law On the Laws Of the United States Today."

Mr. Graves is the first of several resource persons who will be asked to speak to the students this year in an effort to extend the curriculum beyond the classroom and textbooks and into the community. Mr. Graves, in the course of his talk, pointed out that the laws of Arkansas derive more from the English influence than from that of the Roman.

He said, however, that the laws of a sister state, Louisiana, are more nearly identical to the French, and therefore, the Roman. To clarify his point with the students, Mr. Graves likened the Arkansas laws to a coke that has been diluted by the addition of water; the coke in this instance referring to the Roman law, and the water to the English. The Louisiana laws, he pointed out, are more nearly like the undiluted coke.

Rules County Has Right to Close Schools

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The Virginia Supreme Court said today Prince Edward County had the right to close its public schools to avoid racial integration.

In a 6-1 decision, the majority said the Virginia Constitution gives its localities the option of operating or not operating public schools.

The dissenting judge was Chief Justice John Eggleston, who held that the State Legislature was obliged to provide public education in the county which abandoned it four years ago.

The final adjudication in the long-fought school case hinged in part on the action of the Virginia high court. The case is already before the U.S. Supreme Court on its latest trip and Eggleston's dissent offered this forecast.

"The refusal of the highest court of this state to recognize here the rights of the citizens of Prince Edward County guaranteed to them under the Constitution of the United States is a clear invitation to the federal courts to step in and enforce such rights. I am sure that invitation will be promptly accepted. We shall see."

Prince Edward abandoned its public school system in 1959 in the face of court-ordered integration. It took the move by refusing to appropriate local matching school funds.

A private educational foundation immediately organized a school for white pupils. Negroes turned down offers of assistance in opening similar private schools and continued to fight in the courts.

The first break in the education black out for Negroes came last September when a free privately financed system was set up and is now providing education for the Negroes. The new free schools are being held in former public school buildings.

Court Upholds State Laws on Open Shops

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court decided today state courts may enforce state bans on agency shop labor contracts.

Justice Douglas delivered the 8-0 decision.

Justice Goldberg, former secretary of labor, took no part. Workers under agency shop contracts do not have to become union members but must pay the equivalent of dues and fees which members pay.

Douglas said that, in the case ruled on today, the Florida Supreme Court had held that a negotiated union-security agreement violated the right to work provision of the Florida Constitution, and that state courts have jurisdiction to provide a remedy.

"We agree with that view," said Douglas.

The Supreme Court on June 3, 1963, ruled that agency shop contracts are permissible under federal law, but said they may be prohibited by state law. The same day the high tribunal upheld the Florida Supreme Court in its findings that the agency shop violates the state's right-to-work law.

Left unanswered then was the question whether enforcement of state bars against agency shops is up to the states or the National Labor Relations Board. The high court called for new arguments on that issue and they were heard on Oct. 16-17.

The Florida case was appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court by Local 1625 of the AFL-CIO Retail Clerks Union. The local had an agency shop agreement with Food Fair, Inc., stores in Miami. A group of non-union employees of Food Fair protested against paying fees to the union and the Florida Supreme Court ruled in their favor.

Right-to-work laws prohibit contracts requiring union membership by workers in a plant.

Freezing Tonight in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A high pressure ridge was expected to push temperatures to below freezing in most of Arkansas tonight, the Weather Bureau said.

The forecast calls for colder this afternoon and tonight and in the south Tuesday. Lows tonight will be near 20 north to 30 south. The high Tuesday will be 45 to 55 and highs this afternoon 45 to 55.

Strong southerly winds fanned Arkansas Sunday, but a cold front moving across the state during the night brought cooler air. Occasional showers in southeast Arkansas were expected to end as the high pressure ridge moved in.

Highs Sunday were generally in the 50s and low 60s but overnight lows dipped to the 20s in Northwest Arkansas.

City Garage, Warehouse Almost Ready

Construction of a new city garage, warehouse, and storage yard is being completed in the south side of Fair Park.

The new facility occupies an area on the back side of the park, which was formerly used for pole yard and pipe storage area. The warehouse and shop building is an all metal building 40' wide x 90' long with a concrete floor and will have a 24' x 48' shed extension to be used for truck greasing, etc. Also in the area, there is a steel frame storage shed 25' wide x 120' long that will provide storage of all city equipment under the protection of a roof. The garage section is equipped with a hoist to permit handling of motors and heavy equipment and will be complete with work benches for truck and equipment repairs. The parking area is enclosed by a 9' steel fence.

The building is being constructed by the Varco Steel Company, who plan to complete their work within the next ten days. The city garage will be moved as soon as wiring and piping are completed, and it is expected that the building can be in use before January 1st.

These facilities replace the old garage and storage yard located on East Division Street, which the City has been renting for a great number of years at a price of $65.00 per month. There was never quite enough room to store all the equipment of the Street and Sanitation Departments without encroaching upon neighboring property, and residents who live adjoining this property have complained seriously about the storage of garbage equipment near their homes. The new area will provide adequate space for storage of equipment and facilities for repair and maintenance.

The contract for this building, storage sheds, and warehouse with the Varco Steel Company was for a total of $16,657.00. The Water and Light Commission made provision in the 1963 budget for the construction of these facilities.

The commission took the firm's request for authority to declare a two per cent stock dividend under advisement after a brief hearing today.

The proposal involved a paper transfer of about $503,000. The company wants to issue 31,479 shares of new stock on a basis of one share for each 50 shares now outstanding.

Anti-Castro Man Leads in Venezuela

By PAUL FINCH
Associated Press Staff Writer

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Raul Leoni, candidate of Venezuela's anti-Castro government, surged into a strong lead today in the tabulations of the presidential election.

With unofficial tabulations one-third completed, Leoni held a margin of nearly 90,000 votes over his closest rival.

The mounting vote for Leoni appeared to indicate resounding popular support for the strong stand outgoing President Romulo Betancourt has taken against Prime Minister Fidel Castro's Cuban regime.

In recent days, Betancourt's government called for strong measures against Castro including armed action if necessary, by the United States and the nations of Latin America on the ground that Cuba was trying to export its revolution to the hemisphere.

A big victory by Leoni, candidate of Betancourt's Democratic Action party, would hand the Castroite terrorist underground its second major setback since Sunday, when voters turned out in record numbers despite threats of attacks by snipers.

The unofficial results of the tabulation of 33 per cent of more than 3 million votes: Leoni, 293,332; Jovito Villalba of the Republican Democratic Union, 205,281; Arturo Uslar Pietri, an independent, 189,812; Rafael Caldera of the Social Democrats, 176,178; Wolfgang Larrazabal of the Democratic Popular Force, 83,631.

CHRISTCHURCH, New Zealand (AP)—The U.S. Navy icebreaker Atka lost a propeller and shaft while cutting a channel through the ice of Antarctica's McMurdo Sound, the U.S. Navy said today.

The Atka was ramming the ice when the shaft snapped forward of the propeller hub. The shaft and propeller sank.

The ship will leave Tuesday for New Zealand under its own power. The icebreakers Glacier and Burton Island will remain to cut the last three miles of the channel for cargo ships to the U.S. expedition's Antarctic headquarters on McMurdo Sound.

8 Players on Third Team Are Honored

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas State Teachers College at Conway, which placed third in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference football race this season, had eight of its players named to the 1963 All-AIC squad.

The two teams which shared the conference championship, Arkansas A&M and Henderson, placed five and three on the team respectively.

Among those who made the all-conference team were three repeaters, including Harding College's Luther Honey, who was on the list for the fourth consecutive year.

Joe Young of State Teachers, an offensive center, and Larry Dopson, an Arkansas Tech defensive cornerback, also made repeat appearances on the 23-man list composed of offensive and defensive squads.

The only unanimous choices were Bill Shimek, an offensive end from State Teachers, and defensive tackle Charles James of A&M.

Three others missed being unanimous choices by only one point each. They were quarterback Bobby Tiner of State Teachers, Ronnie Higgins, A&M fullback and Henderson halfback Duke Wells.

The only other team to place more than one man on the squad was Southern State which was represented by offensive tackle Jimmy Lawrence and defensive cornerback Jim Williamson.

Other members of the defensive team were ends Coy Clark of State Teachers and Charles Hayes of A&M, tackle John Kitchens of Ouachita, linebackers Terry Thurman of Henderson, Jerry Harrison of State Teachers and Bill Gandy of A&M and halfbacks Wallace Chandler of State Teachers and Lee Carter of A&M.

Other offensive platoon members were end Jimmy Jackson of Ouachita, tackle James Wilburn of State Teachers, guards Joe Carroll of Henderson and

Basketball Play Gets in Full Swing

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach George Ireland's Ramblers from Chicago Loyola will have four returning starters in their lineup tonight when they open defense of their national collegiate basketball championship against North Dakota.

Only All-America Jerry Harkness, who graduated, is lost from the team that compiled a 29-2 record and upset Cincinnati in the NCAA finals last year.

So it's no surprise that the talented Ramblers are heavily favored to repeat as the nation's best in The Associated Press' pre-season poll. They're top-sided favorites to win their opener against little North Dakota, which absorbed an 80-50 drubbing from DePaul Saturday.

The opening night results generally followed form, with Minnesota's 76-66 victory over Kansas State the only major surprise.

The Violets of NYU, ranked second in the AP poll, also open this week along with the sixth-ranked Sun Devils of Arizona State and the No. 10 Oregon State Beavers. NYU opens Wednesday at Cornell, Arizona State on Tuesday against Western New Mexico at Home and Oregon State at Washington State tonight. The latter game was postponed from Saturday.

The other teams in the pre-season top ten, the Cincinnati Bearcats, the Duke Blue Devils, the Wichita Wheatshockers, the Ohio State Buckeyes, the Michigan Wolverines and the Kentucky Wildcats all scored impressive victories on opening night.

Cincinnati, No. 3, crushed George Washington 101-65 behind Ron Bonham's 31 points. Duke, No. 4, humbled Penn State 92-62 as Jeff Mullins tallied 25 points. Wichita, No. 5, took Wyoming 82-67 as Dave Stallworth got 36 points. Ohio State, No. 7, thumped California at Davis 68-62 with Gary Bradds netting 20 points.

Michigan, No. 8, wallowed Ball State 90-76 as Cazzie Russell and Jim Myers filled in capably for the suspended Bill Buntin with an aggregate 52 points. Kentucky, No. 9, had little trouble with Virginia 75-64 as Cotton Nash and Ted Deeken

Larry High of State Teachers and halfback Phil Collins of College of the Ozarks.

The 12-man defensive platoon resulted from a tie between Harrison and Gandy.

Bowler Wins $7,500 and Sets Records

CHICAGO (AP)—Jim St. John of St. Louis rewrote the record book Sunday as he won the $48,000 seventh annual World's Invitational Bowling Tournament by the widest margin in history.

St. John, 33, who still resides in Chicago although bowling for a St. Louis brewery, set 11 world's records on his path to the title and the $7,500 first prize.

The slender St. John finished almost 30 points ahead of second place Johnny Meyer of Nesconset, N.H., who had 314.17 Peterson points as compared to 343.26 by St. John. Meyer collected $3,750 as a runner-up and Bill Johnson of Kansas City got $2,000 for his third place finish.

In the women's division, the defending champion and three-time winner of the event, Mrs. Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., donned her fourth crown by beating lefty Joanne scored 56 points between them. Rick Falk's 25-foot shot at the buzzer gave Northwestern an 80-78 victory over Western Michigan and West Virginia nipped Furman 67-65 on Ricky Ray's jump shot with one second left in two other thrillers.

Chapman of Blencoe, Iowa, in the final round.

St. John, a former Navy career man, averaged 233 for the 64 games in the finals of the 10-day tournament.

Don Carter, 37, of St. Louis, who had won five of the six previous tournaments, was far off his usual pace and finished his long grind on the new lanes at McCormick Place in 15th place and a prize of $915.

Carter, in the previous six tournaments, held the record for winning the most money, $35,331.

Mrs. Ladewig, 49-year-old grandmother, obviously tired at the 48-game grind in four days. But she still had enough left to shoot 246 in her first game and kill whatever chance Mrs. Chapman might have had of taking the title, and the first prize of $4,000.

In certifying her claim as the woman bowler of the year and making another drive toward The Associated Press title of Woman Athlete of the year, Mrs. Ladewig averaged 199 plus for 48 games in the women's field.

Mrs. Ladewig finished with a total of 223.16 Peterson points to 221.39 for Mrs. Chapman and 217.18 for Helen Duval of Berkeley, Calif., who finished third.

Hamilton Wins Title in Canada

TORONTO (AP)—The Hamilton Tiger-Cats got their Grey Cup victory; Hal Paterson got a scoring record, and a television network got a break in the Canadian pro football championship game.

Hamilton ended a frustrating run of our playoff losses by trimming the favored British Columbia Lions, 21-10, at Vancouver, B.C., Saturday. Paterson, veteran Ti-Cat flanker, scored his fifth touchdown in Cup competition to top the old mark by one.

And WABC-TV beamed the game throughout Canada and the United States in little more than three hours after struggling through a two-day nightmare last year when a dense fog caused a halt in play on the scheduled date.

The Tiger-Cat victory which gave the Eastern Division champs their first title since 1957, was a personal triumph for 30-year-old Paterson and his 31-year-old batterymate, former Maryland quarterback Bernie the quarter finals of the Victorian tennis singles championship Monday with an easy 6-2, 6-3, 6-3 third round victory over Australia's Tim Clayton.

Faloney.

For the Lions, Western Division doormats for 10 seasons, and their 36,465 partisans the defeat was a bitter blow, compounded by the second quarter-loss of star halfback Willie (The Wisp) Fleming.

Faloney completed 14 of 20 passes for 272 yards and pitched scoring strikes of 70 yards—to Paterson—and five yards to Willie Bethea.

Angels Trim Their Roster

SAN DIEGO (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels trimmed their roster to 32 players today by selling the contracts of five players to their Hawaii affiliate in the Pacific Coast League.

The quintet included Felix Torres, who had been the Angels regular third baseman the past two seasons. The others were pitcher Mike Lee and outfielders Bob Perry, Frank Kostro and Jackie Warner.

Torres, 31, batted .261 in 138 games last season. He hit four home runs and drove in 51 runs

Legislators

Mosley, a veteran legislator, was appointed to the Southern State Board after he was elected to the legislature.

Pulaski Chancellor Murray O. Reed dismissed the case on grounds that the chancery court lacked jurisdiction to hear it. The Supreme Court said emphatically that the chancery court was the place for the suit to be filed and it directed Reed to enter an order in accordance with its findings in the case.

One legislator that the ruling will apparently affect is state Sen. Olin Hendrix, long-time chairman of the state Hospital Board. It was not known immediately how many other legislators hold board positions.

The unanimous Supreme Court opinion was written by Boyd Tackett of Texarkana, who was appointed by Gov. Orval E. Faubus as a special justice to hear this case.

DOROTHY DIX

VARIATION OF THE PHAEDRE THEME

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: My father-in-law's overaffectionate. I have told no one but my husband since I hesitate to hurt an innocent wife and children, who think the world of this man. He drops in every day and even when my husband is not at home. If my youngsters didn't love him dearly I would bar the door. But it is sheer torture to have him forever trying to grab, kiss and squeeze me, saying, "I'll do anything you want me to do."

I dodge him as much as possible every time he sweet-talks or plagues me with intimate questions about my love life. He tells my husband that the men in his place of business romance with their daughters-in-law. What kind of men would do this to a wife of their own flesh and blood?

So far I've been able to handle the situation but it may not always be so. My girl friend has the same trouble with her father-in-law. What do we do with these old koots? —Fed Up

Dear Fed Up: There's more than one way to skin a wolf. If that wolf happens to be your father-in-law, treat him as the dearly beloved grandfather he is. Next time he drops in make sure that all your children greet him effusively. While they are grabbing, kissing, and squeezing him, say how glad you are that he's come because you must go out and could use him as a baby-sitter. As you make your get away, tell him you're not sure whether you or your husband will be home first and if he needs help, to invite his wife over.

After two or three experiences of being a captive baby-sitter, your father-in-law will undoubtedly stay home where he belongs. The ordeal of mind-ing his grandchildren automatically puts your relationship on a different plane.

Make sure you don't return home ahead of your husband. The best way would be for you both to come in together.

There is nothing more effective than laughter in taking the air out of an amorous old wind-bag, so try to inject a little humor into your situation. For other suggestions send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Philandering."

Dear Helen: Our mother doesn't want us to go into her purse but she goes into ours all the time. If my sisters or I complain she says, "Well, that's different. I'm your mother." We feel that if she wants us to respect her things she should respect ours. She also opens our mail. Do you think this right? —Mad

Dear Mad: Opening other people's mail and snooping into their purses are violations of privacy and the Golden Rule.

Dear Helen: We are a group of girls in freshman high with a big problem—a girl none of us like. She is a tomboy, loud talker and generally plays the idiot; giggling at the wrong moment, boasting about her skill in sports and saying stupid things. If we try to set her right she flies into a rage. When we say,

Antique Shopping Is Hazard

By LOUIS MILLINER

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Antique shopping is one of the hazards a husband must expect when he takes his wife to a convention in New Orleans.

Antique stores are not on the sightseeing tours but any woman can find them.

Set a woman down in an uncharted wilderness and in a few minutes she can be found pricing spinning wheels at Ye Olde Shoppe in some hamlet. Place her blindfolded in New York City and soon she will be at a 3rd Avenue antique shop.

By the time the husband has found the convention headquarters here and has an identification label pinned to his coat lapel, his wife already has window-shopped half a dozen stores and earmarked items for further consideration.

While the delegate is being exhorted by the convention speakers to put his shoulder to the wheel or help put his house in order, the wife is rummaging through silver inkwells, brass firecreens and marble-topped tables.

Among some groups, antique buying is a game with a definite set of rules.

If you play the game rule No. 1 is not to announce your intention upon entering the store. Go in casually. You are "just looking, thank you."

The next move is to price one or more items, depending upon how much time is left. Then start to leave. Now is the time to start to work.

"Oh, by the way, how much are those old pewter candlesticks?"

The dealers, relieved to learn the actual object of affection, quotes a price. There may be discussion, offers, counter-offers before the ultimate sale.

A bit of advice—be on guard. A shopper once entered a store with the intention of working up to a quotation on a large mirror in a gilded frame.

Observing rule No. 1, she asked the price of the first object in sight, an enormous bookcase. Then, stumped by an unexpectedly low price, she forgot her battle plans and bought the bookcase. The bookcase now covers the spot where the mirror would have gone.

Osceola was named for a famous Indian chief.

Hog Backfield Coach Going to Tennessee

By ESCAR THOMPSON

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Douglas Dickey, University of Arkansas assistant coach and exponent of the slot T, was hired as head football coach at Tennessee today to succeed ousted Jim McDonald.

Dickey received a four-year contract at $16,000 a year and was given authority to name his staff.

McDonald, fired Sunday after compiling a 5-5 record this fall, was appointed assistant athletic director to Bob Woodruff. McDonald was named head coach last June 20, following the dismissal of Bowden Wyatt.

Tennessee has turned to Arkansas twice within the past 10 years for a head coach. Wyatt came to Tennessee from Arkansas after the 1954 season.

Dickey is 31 and has been a member of Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas staff six years. For the first four years, Dickey was in charge of the Razorbacks' defense, the last two he directed the offense.

In a letter to Dr. Andrew D. Holt, University of Tennessee president, Broyles gave Dickey a glowing recommendation.

"If for any reason I left Arkansas, Doug is the man I would recommend to succeed me," Broyles wrote. "He has more composure than any man I ever saw."

"I really can't put into words what I feel about Coach Dickey. I don't know of any other young coach who has better qualifications."

Woodruff, who coached Dickey at the University of Florida in 1951-53, said:

"Doug was one of the most intelligent quarterbacks I ever saw. He took over when Harry Wood Sullivan left us for a baseball bonus and led our team to the Gator Bowl (1952). He was a self-made athlete who made himself a football quarterback, basketball player and baseball pitcher."

In picking his assistants, Dickey probably will rely on Woodruff's advice about whether to retain any members of the present Tennessee staff.

Dickey, a native of Gainesville, Fla., is married to the former Jo Anne Beville. They have four sons — Donald, 9; Daniel, 8; David, 6; and Darrell, 2.

At Fayetteville, Ark., Arkansas Athletic Director John Barnhill, himself a former Tennessee coach, called Dickey "an outstanding young coach."

Broyles said, "There is no question in my mind that Doug is one of the outstanding young head coaching prospects in the country. He has my top recommendation and my blessing. I just hope he's doing the right thing for himself and his career right now."

Bill Pace, Arkansas backfield coach, is in line for the assistant coaches' spot if Dickey takes the job.

The dismissal of McDonald came somewhat as a surprise, he volunteers, under McDonald, got off to a poor start, dropping four of their first five games. But the team improved steadily and in November finished with victories over Tulane, Kentucky and Vanderbilt and a good showing against Mississippi despite a 20-0 loss.

The athletics board created a new job in naming McDonald assistant director of athletics.

Woodruff said McDonald will assist him "in promoting our

San Diego Victorious Over Oilers

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Boston's Babe Parilli, taunted by a chant and faced with a long stay at the unemployment office, salvaged his job and the Patriots' title hopes just in time to set up a key clash with Houston that may finally decide the American Football League's Eastern Division scramble.

Early last week Boston Coach Mike Holovak threatened Parilli with the loss of his job if he was unable to move the club against Buffalo. Then, in the second period Sunday, Fenway Park fans began to chant for Parilli's substitute, Tom Yewcic. They got him.

But they got Parilli back at the start of the third quarter, and the 10-year pro veteran completed an amazing flip flop, passing for one touchdown, then scoring the clincher himself for a 17-7 victory over the Bills.

The victory moved the Patriots 6-5-1 into a tie for first place in the East with Houston, which is 6-5 after being shut out for the first time in 45 games—27-0 by San Diego's Western Division leaders. The Patriots meet the Oilers in Houston this Sunday.

The New York Jets, meanwhile, remained in contention in the East with a 5-5-1 record by blanking Kansas City. It was the first shutout in 54 games for the defending league champion Chiefs, bogged down with a 2-7-2 record.

The league's only other game was played Thanksgiving Day, with Oakland defeating Denver 26-10 and remaining two games behind the Chargers. The leaders meet at Oakland Sunday, with the Chargers needing a victory to clinch their third title in the AFL's four-year history.

The Patriots were unable to get inside Buffalo territory under their own power in the first half and the Bills pulled out to a 7-0 lead on an 80-yard drive in the second quarter capped by Cookie Gilchrist's two-yard run. Then Parilli struck back at his taunters.

He pitched a pass over the middle to Larry Garon, and Garon raced the rest of the way on a 44-yard touchdown play. The next time Boston got the ball, Parilli heaved a 63-yarder to Art Graham and four plays later cracked the final two yards for the deciding touchdown.

entire athletic program with alumni and friends of the university all over the state."

Woodruff added: "We plan to expand our promotional activities with alumni clubs, civic clubs and high school functions—especially in recruiting the outstanding student athletes in the state," he added.

One thing is certain—the single wing will no longer be Tennessee's basic offense. The late Gen. Bob Neyland installed it in 1926 when he became head coach. Tennessee became a football power and in 1938-39-40 went successively to the Orange, Rose and Sugar bowl games and in 1951 won the National Championship.

But in the last six years, Tennessee has had mediocre success with the old power formation, compiling a record of 30 victories, 27 defeats and 3 ties.

Pork Cagers Win, Missouri Is Next

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)

The Arkansas basketball Razorbacks have something in common with the Porker football team. Both teams had Missouri as their No. 2 opponent and both teams faced the Tigers with a victory under their belts.

But the basketball players hope the similarity ends there, since Missouri's football team downed the Razorbacks 7-6.

The Razorbacks and Tigers clash tonight at Fayetteville. Arkansas is fresh from a 71-65 victory over Southwestern Louisiana Saturday night, and Missouri, on the same night, won a 65-64 squeaker over Air Force.

The Razorbacks, behind by four points at the half, quickly overcame the Louisiana 32-28 lead in the second half. Larry Hogue put in six points in the early part of the second half to put the Porkers ahead.

Hogue and the Razorbacks' other co-captain, Jim Mangess, both fouled out. Jim Jay of Lincoln led the Arkansas scorers with 12 points, followed by Mangess with 11.

The leading Southwestern point producer was Dean Church, who collected 22.

Missouri trailed Air Force throughout its game Saturday night until a jump shot by Bob Price put the Tigers ahead for the first time with 48 seconds left in the game. Air Force stalled for a final shot by its ace, Mike Pavish, but the ball rolled off the rim with 10 seconds left.

Unbeaten Ranks Down to Only 18

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation's list of unbeaten, untied college football teams was reduced to 18 this weekend with defeats suffered by the College of Emporia and Southwest Missouri.

Emporia was blasted by St. John's, Minn., also unbeaten and untied, 54-0 in an NAIA semifinal playoff, while Southwest Missouri fell before Northern Illinois, 21-14 in the Mineral Bowl.

Texas, top-ranked in the nation and heading for the Cotton Bowl, is the only major team on the list. The Longhorns have competed a 10-0 regular season record their first perfect mark since 1920.

All of unbeaten-untied have finished regular season play except Prairie View.

Cardinals Draft Hog Junior
ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis football Cardinals said Sunday that they had signed 1963 "future" draft choice, Billy Clay, a University of Arkansas tackle.

Clay, a 6-foot-4, 230-pounder, was chosen in the 20th round. A "future" is a player who has a year of eligibility left although his class has graduated.

Bowl Picture Hinges on Army and Navy Game

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The majority of the major college football bowl berths still unfilled hinge on just one game—Army-Navy.

When that one is decided, the Cotton Bowl visitors' spot will be filled—either by Navy or Pitt. And when the Cotton Bowl is decided the others are expected to fall in line just like knocking over the first of a row of dominoes.

Here's the way it works: The Rose, Sugar, Orange and Bluebonnet bowls have their teams. Still to be filled are the visiting roles in the Cotton and Galor and both spots in the Liberty.

Second-ranked Navy is the top contender for the Cotton Bowl berth, but won't go if it loses to Army in their classic clash in Philadelphia on Saturday. It may not go even if it wins.

Fifth-ranked Pitt is the No. 2 contender with an 8-1 record and with one game to go, against Penn State Saturday. Pitt, however, also is considered a candidate for some of the other bowls, so they all must await the outcome of the Army-Navy clash.

The Middles definitely won't go if they fail in their bid for their fifth straight victory over Army. If they win, the whole delicate situation will land in lap of the Pentagon and may even end up on the desk of President Johnson.

If Navy doesn't go, the honor almost certainly will go to Pitt, which has lost only to Navy and marked up its eighth victory with a 31-20 decision over Miami, Fla. Saturday night.

Washington won its way into the Rose Bowl on the running of fullback Junior Coffey in a 16-0 triumph over Washington State that sealed the Big Six title Saturday. The Huskies take only a 6-4 mark into the game against Big Ten champ, Illinois, 7-1-1.

Auburn gained the Orange Bowl spot opposite Nebraska on the strength of its 10-8 upset of Alabama, engineered largely through the efforts of substitute quarterback Manton Kent.

Despite the setback, Alabama made it into the Sugar, where it will oppose Mississippi, which had to have a fourth-period field goal to tie the Mississippi State 10-10.

Brilliant Don Trull scored all three touchdowns in the 21-12 Baylor victory over Rice which put the Bears in the Bluebonnet against LSU.

Dartmouth gained a share of the Ivy League title by upsetting Princeton 22-21 while Yale knocked off Harvard 20-6.

NFL Starts Annual Draft of Players

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The 14 National Football League teams draft the top college talent today, to be followed shortly by a checkbook struggle with the newer American Football League.

The San Francisco 49ers, bottom in the league standings, get first pick in the NFL. The other teams follow in reverse order of the current standings, with the Chicago Bears picking last.

The session starts at 10 a.m., EST, and will run all day. The 49ers, hurtling at quarterback, might grab Pete Beathard of Southern California, a Rose Bowl hero.

That would start the money fight right away. Beathard was the No. 2 pick in the AFL draft held last Saturday in New York. The Kansas City Chiefs tabbed him and reportedly have been in close contact with him.

If that is the case, the 49ers might go for George Nira the Miami All-America who is highly regarded by NFL people here for the draft meeting.

The NFL draft will go 20 rounds, until bidding rights within the league are reserved on 280 players.

The eight AFL clubs earmarked 160 players. The same collegians for the most part will appear on both lists, with the highest bidder landing the man. It's been a players' market since the AFL was formed four seasons ago.

Each NFL club retained its first round pick, but trades have been made down the list. The Bears have a total of 24 choices, Green Bay 23, Los Angeles 22 and Detroit and San Francisco 21 each.

Dallas, New York and St. Louis have the regular on 20. Cleveland, Minnesota and Philadelphia have 19 each, Baltimore 18 and Pittsburgh and Washington 17.

The AFL by-passed the glamour boys generally and concentrated on beefy linemen.

The NFL may have the top names higher, including quarterbacks such as Billy Lothridge of Georgia Tech, Dick Shiner of Maryland, Larry Rakestraw of Georgia, George Bork of Northern Illinois, Perry Lee Dunn of Mississippi and Craig Morton of California, in addition to Beathard and Mira.

The NFL probably will bypass Jack Concannon of Boston College. The AFL Boston Patriots traded for the first draft choice in their league and tabbed Concannon, a home town hero.

Magnolia was once called Frog Level, the newer name came from a group of wild magnolia trees.
